Summary

Bank Chambers Two is a flexible apartment suited to both business and leisure guests. Its located in the centre of the historic market town of Knaresborough, surrounded by a warren of medieval streets and buildings.

Accommodation

Bank Chambers Two is located on the first floor of this historic building. It has large windows which look out onto the attractive town and with far reaching countryside views. Lifestyle lounge with fully fitted kitchen, including a large fridge freezer. Fitted cupboards from the building's banking hall days have been thoughtfully restored and incorporated into the design scheme. Four bar stools arranged around a quartz topped peninsular breakfast bar is ideal for casual dining. This room also has an L-Shaped sofa (this can be a sofa bed on request for an extra charge of £25.00) and Freeview TV.

This apartment has two bedrooms; the larger bedroom enjoys three large sash windows and beds that can either be configured as a large double bed or two singles (please indicate choice on booking). Full length wardrobe with mirror. The second bedroom has large sturdy bunk beds, which can accommodate adults or children alike.

There is a well designed bathroom with bath and shower over, which has both a waterfall head and a hand held attachment.
